Renseigner la date de début.

The screenshot shows the labguru interface. At the top, there are logos for Inserm clé and labguru, along with a 'Support' dropdown and 'Wahnon Lab' user information. Below the navigation bar, there are tabs for 'e-Notebook', 'Knowledgebase', 'Inventory', and 'Storage & Equipment'. The main content area displays an experiment entry titled '2020-12-06 - Fanny Brizzi's Experiment 002'. Below the title, there is a row with 'ID: 1535', the user 'Fanny Brizzi', and a group of users 'You and 8 more can edit'. To the right of this row are buttons for 'Flag Experiment', 'Sign', and a 'More' dropdown. Below this is a row with a calendar icon, 'Start date: Dec 06, 2020 18:00', 'Duration (days): 10', and a 'Calendar View' link. A 'tag this item' button is also present. The interface then shows two sections: 'Description' and 'Procedure'. Each section has a 'More' dropdown and a 'Copy to report' button. A 'Save' button is located at the end of each section. At the bottom of the 'Procedure' section, there is a date range 'Dec 06, 2020 @ 18:00 to Dec 17, 2020 @ 01:00' and a 'Save' button.
